The Council on Business & Society. Through our individual and collective efforts, we strive to create and disseminate knowledge about those issues and train future business leaders capable of and committed to solving them.

THE SEVEN SCHOOLS THAT MAKE UP THE COUNCIL ON BUSINESS & SOCIETY

- ESSEC Business School, France, Asia-Pacific and Africa
- FGV-EAESP, Brazil
- School of Management, Fudan University, China
- IE Business School, Ireland
- Keio Business School, Japan
- Trinity Business School, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland
- Warwick Business School, United Kingdom

The partner schools share a commitment to and belief in the power of academic excellence, collaboration, innovation, and transformative leadership. Each is a recognised leader in management education and offers a wide range of business-related degrees and executive programmes.

[The Council's] Global Voice – yet another boring think tank, you might say? Not at all! The content is professional, exhaustive and explained. The tone is interesting, certain articles are wittily pitched and the style is fluid. Highly recommended!

Nicolas Berrou, Business-cool.com

These articles and blog posts are genuinely wonderful and I routinely move them on to my college students who're facing/struggling with exams and research competencies – they listen to you in a way they really don't to me!

I am just commenting to make you be aware of the impressive discovery my daughter encountered reading through your web page. She came to understand plenty of details, most notably what it's like to have an awesome teaching character to make many more quite simply learn about specified complicated topics. You undoubtedly did more than her desires. Thanks for churning out the precious, trustworthy, educational and as well as fun tips on the topic to Evelyn.
